

Belgian Feed Producers: Can You Meet the 2025 Reporting Deadline?

By 2025, Belgian feed producers must meet Ahold Delhaize's Scope 3 GHG emissions reporting requirements, reflecting the growing need for transparency and sustainability. Opteinics, validated by the Belgian Feed Association (BFA), offers a trusted, user-friendly LCA tool to help feed producers achieve compliance and maintain strong customer partnerships.

What reporting is required of you and how can Opteinics help meet the deadline?

Science-Based Targets

Suppliers accounting for 70% of their carbon footprint must commit to SBTi.

Scope 3 Reporting

All suppliers are required to report their Scope 3 GHG emissions.

Upstream and Downstream Transport and Distribution

Use of Sold Products

Waste in Operations and End-of-Life Products

Business Travel and Employee Commuting

Purchased Goods and Services

Protein Ratio Goals

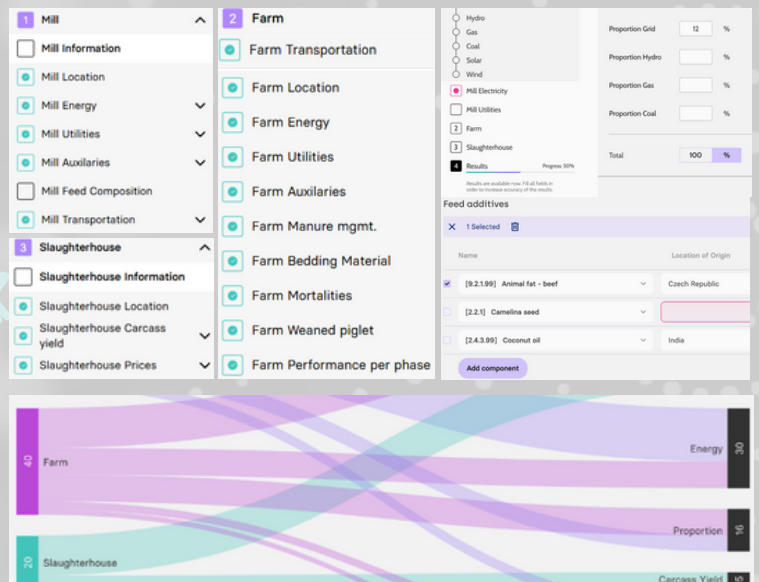

By 2024, European food retailers must baseline protein ratios and set targets.

Trusted Validation

Opteinics is one of the few LCA platforms validated by the Belgian Feed Association (BFA).

Cost-Effective Solution

At just €300/user per month (billed annually), Opteinics offers unlimited reporting capabilities.

Ease of Use

The platform is user-friendly, enabling feed producers to generate accurate reports quickly and efficiently.

Comprehensive Compliance

Opteinics ensures full compliance with Scope 3 GHG reporting standards.

Why act now?

Failure to meet these requirements could result in strained relationships with major customers and lost business opportunities. By acting now, Belgian feed producers can:

- Ensure compliance with Ahold Delhaize's Scope 3 reporting requirements.
- Maintain a competitive edge in the evolving feed supply chain landscape.
- Align with the sustainability demands of a major retailer, safeguarding long-term business growth.

The clock is ticking!

The 2025 Scope 3 reporting deadline presents both a challenge and an opportunity for Belgian feed producers. By adopting Opteinics, you can meet Ahold Delhaize's sustainability requirements, strengthen your business relationships, and secure your position as a trusted partner in the feed supply chain. Prepare for 2025 today. Partner with Opteinics to ensure compliance, streamline your reporting processes, and secure your business legacy in Belgium.
